

Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization Regional Centre for Technical Education Development
(SEAMEO TED)

Consultation Meeting Report On “China-ASEAN TVET Cooperation Talk”
October 25, 2022

Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization Regional Centre for Technical Education Development (SEAMEO TED) and Guangxi Education Department, China co-organized a Consultation Meeting on: “China-ASEAN TVET Cooperation Talk” on October 25, 2022 at 14:30-18:00 (GTM+8) with 226 participants for the ASEAN region including 40 Chinese colleges. The meeting was opened by Mr. Luo Yaoguang, Director of Department of Education of Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region. He expressed his willingness to cooperate with all education institutes in ASEAN to strengthen the capacity of learners and teachers for mutual benefits. After the opening ceremony, the breakout session was held by dividing into 5 rooms with 8 Chinese colleges for each room requiring each Chinese college deliver their organizational profile to the participants for cooperation consideration.

(Mr. Luo’s Opening Remarks)

(Meeting Participants for an Opening Session)

After the school profile presentation, Dr. Songheang Ai, Director of SEAMEO TED delivered the Closing Remarks. He thanked Mr. Luo Yaoguang, Ms. Qin Ziyang and all school representatives for your kind and active participation and excellent arrangements for today’s TVET Cooperation Talk, which led to the meeting being held as planned and getting fruitful results highlighting a closer and closer relationships between China and ASEAN. He also stressed an importance cooperation between both side for technical education development in terms of teachers, students, school management, private sector, technical education system, and technical framework.

(Dr.

Songheang Ai's Closing Remarks)

(Participants for the Closing Ceremony)

Finally, all participants are satisfied with the talk and looking forward to the work plans and activities to be implemented cooperatively between ASEAN and China for upcoming years.