Stay Connecting with Stakeholders through Cooperative Events

SEAMEO TED has enhanced its function, potential working network and good partnership for realizing its mission in developing technical education at secondary level in Southeast Asian region through attending regional and international workshops, forums and conferences to present its papers and interacting with various stakeholders.

SEA VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL/COLLEGE NETWORK

TED has formulated SEA Vocational-Technical High School/College Network (SEA VOT Network) covering 81 vocational-technical high school/colleges as members across 11 Southeast Asian countries. The network members have played crucial roles in sharing and exchanging information, knowledge, teaching, experiences and good practices to one another. They have also gained better accessibility and opportunity for attending capacity building and regional workshops, webinars and exchange program.

This network was endorsed by SEAMEO TED's 11 GB Members in October 2020.
